

Syllabus for Recruitment of Lecturers in Law

Unit - I: Jurisprudence

- i) Schools of jurisprudence
 - Natural Law School
 - Historical School
 - Analytical Positivism
 - Sociological Jurisprudence
- ii) Emerging Dimensions of Jurisprudence
 - Environmental Jurisprudence
 - Consumer Jurisprudence
 - Gender Jurisprudence
 - Legal Aid
- iii) Sources and concepts
 - Custom
 - Precedent
 - Legislation
 - Rights and Duties
- iv) Administration of Justice
 - Development of Sovereignty
 - Meaning and concept of Administration of Justice
 - Advantages and Disadvantages
 - Development of Public Interest Litigation

Unit - II: Constitutional Law: New Dimensions

- i) Introduction
 - Preamble
 - Salient Features
 - Union and its Territory
 - Concept of State and the changing Horizon
- ii) Right to Equality etc.
 - Equal protection and protective Discrimination
 - Freedom of Speech and Expression
 - Media Freedom
 - Freedom of Religion
- iii) Emerging Rights and Remedies
 - Right to Life and Personal Liberty: New Dimensions
 - Right to Constitutional Remedies
 - Emergence of New Rights under Directive Principles of State Policy
 - State Liability Under Torts and Contracts
- iv) New Dimensions and New Regime
 - Rights of Displaced Persons
 - Right to Education & Commercialization of Education
 - Centre-State Relations
 - Judicial Review

Unit -III: Law of Contract

- i) General Principles of Contract
 - Offer & Acceptance
 - Elements of Consideration
 -
 - Capacity to contract and free consent
 - Legality of contract, void and voidable Contract
- ii) Performance of Contract etc.
 - Performance of contract
 - Quasi Contract
 - Doctrine of Frustration
 - Breach of Contract
- iii) Specific Contracts
 - Bailment
 - Guarantee
 - Indemnity
 - Agency
- iv) Sale of goods
 - Definition and Essentials of sale
 - Contract for sale
 - Transfer of Title
 - Conditions and Warranty

Unit - IV: Law & Social Transformation in India

- i) Law and Social Change
 - Concept and theories of social change and the role of law
 - Concept and jurisprudential theories of social engineering
 - Law as an instrument of social change and development
 - Fundamental Rights and new social ordering, Directive principles of State policies and social transformation.
- ii) Religion and the Law
 - Religion as a divisive factor.
 - Secularism as a solution to the problem
 - Reform of the law on secular lines: Problems
 - Freedom of religion and Rights of Religious minorities
- iii) Community and the Law
 - Caste as a divisive factor
 - Non-discrimination on the ground of caste
 - Protective discrimination: Scheduled castes, tribes and backward classes
 - Reservation: Statutory Commissions, Statutory Provisions.

- iv) Gender Mainstreaming and Law
- Gender injustice and feminist jurisprudence
 - Broader concept of gender equality
 - Inclusion and participation of women in Governance and Decision Making process
 - Women's Commission: Determination of status of women, redressing unfair practices affecting women

Unit - V: Legal Education System in India

- i) Scope and Extent of Legal Education
- Professional Education and status of legal education in India.
 - Growth and objectives of legal education in India
 - Continuing Legal Education
 - Globalization and future of legal education
- ii) Law Curriculum
- Curriculum model for law studies
 - Curriculum contents
 - Evaluation of BCI and UGC curricular Model
 - Defects of present curriculum model
- iii) Teaching Method
- Lecture Method
 - Case study method
 - Seminar method
 - Clinical legal education
- iv) Evaluation process
- Objectives of Examinations
 - Internal and external Assessments
 - Practical / Oral Examination
 - Problems in law examination and solution